Château de La Gardine (Rhone Valley) - www.gardine.com / Twitter: @chateaugardine

The winemaking tradition of the Brunel family dates back to the 17th century. Gaston Brunel, a famous négociant, acquired the Château de la Gardine in Châteauneuf du Pape in 1945. The estate is now run by his two sons, Patrick and Maxime with the help of their wives Eve and Maryse and their children Marie-Odile and Philippe. The estate spreads over 52 ha of vineyards (48 ha of red and 4 ha of white) and 20 ha of forests, all gathered around the property. The domaine is famous for the quality of their wines and for the unique Gardine bottle.

Marqués de Riscal is one of the oldest Rioja wineries, founded in Elciego (Álava) in 1858 by Guillermo Hurtado de Amézaga. It was the first Spanish winery to fully adopt the Bordeaux chateau model, where all grapes are estate-grown, and top wines are aged in barriques. Over the decades, improvements included wrapping in bottles in gold netting to thwart forgeries. Today Marqués de Riscal holds true to Rioja traditions while also offering new wines that show their innovation.

anCnoc – www.ancnoc.com / Twitter: @anCnoc_whisky anCnoc is a rather curious whisky. You see, this fine single malt is created using traditional production methods. It's just that we use them to make a refreshingly modern whisky. The end result is a lighter tasting single malt that doesn't compromise on quality.

Balblair – www.balblair.com / Twitter: @balblairwhisky

Welcome to the idyllic coast of the Dornoch Firth, the home of Balblair. It's here, since we rolled out our first barrels in 1790, that we've been producing award-winning Highland Single Malt whisky. You'll notice our bottles are not marked with an age statement, but simply with the year that the whisky was laid down. Every year, the casks are sampled, judged and selected by Distiller Manager, John MacDonald to find its optimum maturation point. That's why we only create Vintages timed to perfection.

Catto's – www.cattos.com

James Catto, one of the first to master the art of blending, launched Catto's Rare Old Scottish Highland Scotch in 1861. Setting up shop in his home city of Aberdeen, he was quick to harness the potential of what was then a thriving international port and he soon established a first-rate reputation with a widespread and influential clientele.

Old Pulteney – www.oldpulteney.com / Twitter: @OldPulteneyMalt

The Old Pulteney distillery in Wick is one of the most northerly distilleries on the Scottish mainland. It is a windswept location, where the uncompromising landscape of the Highlands meets the North Sea, and the wave's crash against the granite walls of the harbour. The extreme location and unique stills have resulted in a distinctive flavour, bursting with the power and subtlety of the sea.
