Chile

Fresita – www.fresita.com / Twitter: @_fresita

Fresita means 'strawberry' in Spanish and few know that the first strawberries were white and discovered in Chile's Patagonia. Later in 1714, Amedee-Francoise Frezier introduced them to the rest of the world and eventually the red strawberries evolved. Fresita is made by infusing hand-picked, Patagonian strawberries into our blend of sparkling wine.

Pol Roger is among the smaller of the great Champagne houses, but ranks with the very highest in terms of prestige and an uncompromising reputation for quality. It remains proudly independent, one of a very select brand of Grandes Marques still remaining in family hands. Its cellars, extending to some 7 km, lie on three levels in the chalk below Epernay and are among the coolest and the deepest in the region: contributing no doubt to the excellent, persistent mousse of small bubbles which distinguishes all Pol Roger Champagnes.

anCnoc – www.ancnoc.com / Twitter: @anCnoc_whisky

anCnoc is a rather curious whisky. You see, this fine single malt is created using traditional production methods. It's just that we use them to make a refreshingly modern whisky. The end result is a lighter tasting single malt that doesn't compromise on quality.

Balblair – www.balblair.com / Twitter: @balblairwhisky

Welcome to the idyllic coast of the Dornoch Firth, the home of Balblair. It's here, since we rolled out our first barrels in 1790, that we've been producing award-winning Highland Single Malt whisky. You'll notice our bottles are not marked with an age statement, but simply with the year that the whisky was laid down. Every year, the casks are sampled, judged and selected by Distiller Manager, John MacDonald to find its optimum maturation point. That's why we only create Vintages timed to perfection.
