Wakefield Wines (Clare Valley) - www.wakefieldwines.com

When Bill Taylor Senior and his sons acquired a promising block of land in the Clare Valley in 1969, they did so with the singular hope of creating a wine of the finest quality. Not only did they achieve this dream, they founded a winemaking philosophy that continues to resonate through their wines today. This Clare Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is well balanced, complex and fulfilling.

Château de La Gardine (Rhône Valley) - www.gardine.com / Twitter: @chateaugardine

The winemaking tradition of the Brunel family dates back to the 17th century. Gaston Brunel, a famous négociant, acquired the Château de la Gardine in Châteauneuf du Pape in 1945. The estate is now run by his two sons, Patrick and Maxime with the help of their wives Eve and Maryse and their children Marie-Odile and Philippe. The estate spreads over 52 ha of vineyards (48 ha of red and 4 ha of white) and 20 ha of forests, all gathered around the property. The domaine is famous for the quality of their wines and for the unique Gardine bottle.

Borgogno (Barolo) - www.borgogno.com – NEW TO BACCHUS!

The name Borgogno has always been related to one of the oldest winery in the Langhe and in Piedmont. It all began in 1761 when Bartolomeo Borgogno established the cellar. Casa Borgogno, with its own cellars carved into the live tuff of the hill, is found right in the historical centre of the town of Barolo. The strong point of Borgogno lies in its unconditional respect of tradition, which recalls wines of days gone by and are actually produced with traditional and natural wine making methods, and therefore: no selected yeasts used, no enzymes used, no mannoprotein used.

Marqués de Riscal is one of the oldest Rioja wineries, founded in Elciego (Álava) in 1858 by Guillermo Hurtado de Amézaga. It was the first Spanish winery to fully adopt the Bordeaux chateau model, where all grapes are estate-grown, and top wines are aged in barriques. Over the decades, improvements included wrapping its bottles in gold netting to thwart forgeries. Today Marqués de Riscal holds true to Rioja traditions while also offering new wines that show their innovation.
